Pronouns Matter

- In English, personal pronouns are the words we use in place of someone's name when we talk about them in the third person.
- Just as people have names they want to be referred to by, most of us have pronouns - such as he/him, she/her, they/them, or ze/zir.
- Just as you wouldn't guess someone's name before they tell you, we shouldn't assume others' pronouns or genders based on their appearance.
- It's easier for others to share their pronouns when you share yours!
