

Do Good Institute

NEW STUDENT GUIDE

2020

WELCOME TO THE NATION'S FIRST DO GOOD CAMPUS

We have tons of opportunities to inspire you to take action and empower you to make an impact that tackle today's social issues. Check out all the ways you can learn, act, and grow at UMD.

Hi there!

First things first, welcome to the University of Maryland!

We are so excited for you to experience everything this great campus has to offer. We know that beginning college can be nerve-racking and exciting all at the same time, and navigating a new campus can be overwhelming; so, we have created this program guide that introduces you to some of the Do Good Institute's programs. Flip through to learn more about how you can get involved in doing good here on campus. Included in this guide are ways to:

LEARN Learn more

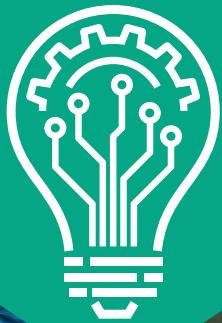

- Tune up Tuesdays: One-on-one coaching sessions and support with experts to help grow and power your impact
- Do Good Courses: Hands-on classes across campus to deepen your understanding of philanthropy and social issues

ACT Take Action

- Do Good Mini-Grant: Seed funding up to $500 to start, support, or scale-up your social impact initiatives
- Do Good Ambassadors: Leadership and community-building program that engages passionate students in our Do Good Campus
- Do Good Challenge: A campus-wide, pitch-style competition for Terps making a difference to win a share of more than $20,000

GROW Grow your impact

- Accelerator Membership: Collaborative community space and resources to support and advance innovative ideas
- Accelerator Fellows: Eight week, paid project development program to learn, grow, and accelerate Terp initiatives
- Scale Your Impact: Personalized support, coaching and resources up to $30,000 to take your organization further

TUNE-UP TUESDAYS

Get Feedback on Your Latest Idea, Project, or Venture

Have an idea that aims to create positive societal change? Working on an impact project? Need help with your model, marketing, or fundraising? Join us at a Tune-Up Tuesday hosted every Tuesday during the semester from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Do Good Accelerator to take your work to the next level.

The Do Good Accelerator (behind The Hotel at UMD) offers coaching and advising to current UMD students to inspire action and power impact. Current students engaged in classes, teams, organizations, and projects that place emphasis on social impact or innovation are eligible to receive support via Tune-Up Tuesdays.

Why Participate?

Deepen your understanding of an issue you are passionate about

Develop a project proposal or strengthen an existing one

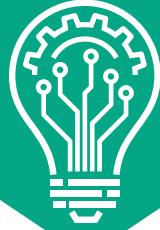

Perfect the art of storytelling and craft impactful pitches

Learn about investments, grants, gifts, and other funding

Prepare a strategic marketing plan...and more!

TUNE-UP TUESDAYS

One-on-one coaching sessions and support to help grow your idea and power your impact

You're a Great Fit for Coaching If you Are

Curious and Want to Learn More

Join us if you are passionate about a social issue or cause and want to gain a better understanding of the situation and how you can make a positive impact.

Just Starting Out

If you are in the beginning stages of developing a proposal for a project, program, or venture to address a specific cause or issue, sign up!

Starting to Do the Work

Have you begun implementing your idea and are looking for feedback on your activities and plans? We can help.

Growing Your Idea

If you are actively implementing your idea and are looking to scale-up the impact of your organization or venture, come stop by.

Get Started Today

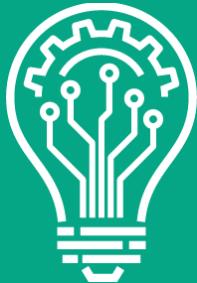

Complete the Coaching Intake Questionnaire located at go.umd.edu/dgcoaching.

After you complete the intake questionnaire, you can schedule your Tune-Up Tuesday coaching session by visiting go.umd.edu/dgcoachingappt.

Note, you must be a current UMD student to participate in coaching at this time.*

Questions
about coaching?

Email Kisha Logan,
Do Good Accelerator
Manager at
kvlogan@umd.edu

DO GOOD IN THE CLASSROOM

Learn, Explore, Do Good, and Earn Credits

Be a dreamer. A creator. A leader. A changemaker. As you plan out your first semester at UMD, we thought you may be interested in some of the courses that explore and engage in nonprofit leadership, philanthropy, social innovation, and doing good at UMD. Courses are offered across campus, available to any major.

Fall Courses to Consider

PLCY213

An introduction to the nonprofit sector, social innovation, and the leadership skills needed to achieve social impact.

PLCY310

Further your understanding of leadership, social innovation, community mobilization, and the role of policy making in changemaking.

COMM107D

Designed for students committed to community engagement and social change...and it fills your public speaking requirement!

PLCY388D

A team-based, interactive and dynamic course, where you generate solutions to societal issues that are important to you.

PLCY 388G

A class that goes through a challenging and exciting process of granting up to $7,500 to an international organization.

AND SO MANY MORE!

Check out more courses on our website at go.umd.edu/dogooded.

DO GOOD MINI-GRANTS

Up to $500 to Start, Support, or Scale Your Social Impact Initiative

Do Good Mini-Grants provide funding to support the development, implementation, and growth of student-led, student-run proposals that create a positive social or environmental impact.

Receive up to $500 to support your project or venture! Along with funding, all teams receive coaching and project support, as well as membership to the Do Good Accelerator, a collaborative space on campus that offers workspace and a number of training, development, and networking opportunities.

We're Looking for Students Who Are

Passionate

about creative positive change for a social or environmental issue

Involved

in a student-led team, organization, or business making a social impact

Eager

to join a community of social advocates, innovators, and changemakers

Interested

in bolstering your efforts to participate in the annual Do Good Challenge

DO GOOD MINI-GRANTS

Funding for student-led proposals that create positive outcomes to address social or environmental issues

What We Fund

NEW IDEAS

Are you a new club, business, or community group with a plan to address a social issue? We can help you get things rolling.

PROGRAM SUPPORT

Need funds to maintain your amazing work? We can support your existing model and help you improve.

SCALING UP

Expanding a program, project or venture? Get Funds and support for amplifying and scaling your existing work.

Past Grantees

Provides crucial resources to students who are raising guide dogs

Hosted a Women's Empowerment event, encouraging girls to self advocate

Packaged 195,000 meals and raised $54,000 in just eight weeks

Pawsible

GirlUp at UMD

Terps Against Hunger

Get Started Today

Do Good Mini-Grants are awarded once in the Fall semester and once in the Spring semester. Visit go.umd.edu/minigrant to see the next application due date, learn more, and apply!

If you have any questions on the application, or want to find out more email us at dogoodchallenge@umd.edu.

Keep up to date with all things Do Good by following us on social media @DoGoodatUMD.

DO GOOD AMBASSADORS

Learn New Skills, Earn Money, and Inspire Fellow Terps to Do Good

Interested in getting more involved with the nation's first Do Good Campus? Join a new professional development and community-building program that engages passionate, inspired, and innovative Terps to Do Good in their communities, careers, and the world.

Undergraduate students from any college or school selected as Ambassadors will have the unique opportunity to expand their knowledge and participation in Do Good campus activities, while developing leadership skills and joining a community of changemakers

Why Participate?

Semester Stipend

Each semester, receive a stipend of $400 for all of your hard work! You will also receive exclusive Do Good branded swag

Exclusive Events

Access to professional development, project support, and other Do Good workshops as well as Ambassador only events will be offered

Grow & Develop Skills

Develop crucial leadership, business, and nonprofit skills and get coaching and professional development support from staff

Join a Community

Come together with other advocates and changemakers at UMD and beyond! You will join a powerful network of Do Good alums

DO GOOD AMBASSADORS

Inspire fellow students, join the Do Good Campus team, and grow with your community

Projects May Include

MEDIA CREATION

Capture and create media content, including web stories, social media posts, graphics, videos, and photos that will be featured by Do Good.

FOCUS GROUPS

Provide feedback on current 'Do Good' classes, programs, and events to help create more value for Terps across UMD's campus.

CLASS PRESENTATIONS

Visit classes throughout campus to present about Do Good programs and share how students can make a positive social impact now.

SOCIAL MEDIA TAKEOVER

Participate in a takeover of one of Do Good's social media channels. Get creative and highlight a day in the life of a Do Good Ambassador.

PUBLISH STORIES

Write feature stories about the nonprofit and social impact sector as well as highlight happenings on UMD's Do Good Campus for dogood.umd.edu.

EVENT SUPPORT

Provide support at events like the Do Good Challenge Finals, Maryland Day, and more by tabling, talking to prospective students, or managing logistics.

Get Started Today

Visit go.umd.edu/ambassadors to learn more and apply!

The first class of Ambassadors launched in Spring of 2020 with 14 students. Students must be able to commit to monthly meetings and to various events and projects throughout the semester (approximately 10 hours per month)

If you have any questions about the application or want to learn more about the program, please email Megan Masterson, Program and Communications Coordinator, at meganjm@umd.edu.

Keep up to date with all things Do Good by following us on social media @DoGoodatUMD.

Questions about the program or applying?

Email Megan Masterson at meganjm@umd.edu

DO GOOD CHALLENGE

Be Recognized and Win Prize Money for Your Project or Venture

The Do Good Challenge is a campus-wide social impact competition for University of Maryland students to create, develop, and expand projects and ventures throughout the academic year. Students spend the year advocating, fundraising, volunteering, and developing solutions for pressing social issues.

The Challenge culminates in a Finals event with the top six teams pitching their project or venture and the positive impact they've made for the chance to win a share of more than $20,000.

Why Participate?

Compete and Showcase

Share your impact with a large audience & gain exposure while competing for the chance to win a share of $20,000+

Get Resources

Get connected to opportunities and networks that can deepen and expand your ability to do more good

Develop Your Idea

Start something new or improve and expand on your existing work, and test your model in the real world

Join a Community

Join an exciting and impressive group of advocates, innovators, and changemakers at UMD and beyond

DO GOOD CHALLENGE

A campus-wide competition for Terps making a difference for the causes they care about

How it Works

Create Team Profile

Join 100s of teams from across the University of Maryland as they Do Good. Teams can register at any time.

Get Support

Apply for a Mini-Grant, get coaching at Tune-up Tuesdays, or join other opportunities to kickstart your project.

Take Action

Make a difference in your community through service, fundraising, advocacy, events discussions, and more.

Submit Application

How did you Do Good? In late spring, submit an application sharing your activites and impact.

Present at Semi-Finals

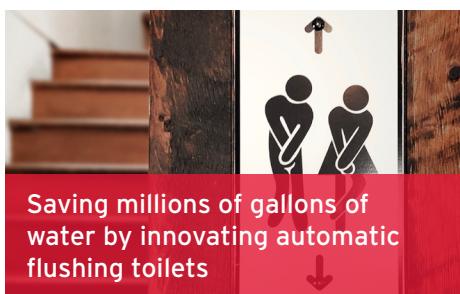

A select number of teams will advance to Semi-Finals, to present a brief pitch to a panel of judges.

Pitch at Finals

Six teams pitch their impact at the Do Good Challenge Finals for a chance to win a share of $20,000 and additional support.

Past Winners

Saving millions of gallons of water by innovating automatic flushing toilets

Hydraze, 2019

Supported Children's National Health System by raising over $4 million in 5 years

Terp Thon, 2018

Has become the largest student movement fighting food waste and hunger in America

Food Recovery Network, 2012

Get Started Today

Visit go.umd.edu/dogoodchallenge to learn more about the Do Good Challenge or to schedule an information session with a coach. Stay up to date with all things Do Good Challenge by following us on social media @DoGoodatUMD. Email dogoodchallenge@umd.edu with any questions.

ACCELERATOR MEMBERSHIP

Collaborative community space and resources to support and help advance innovative ideas

Membership Benefits

Open collaborative workspace and meeting space

1:1 coaching and advising sessions, specifically geared toward your needs

Connections to campus and external resources and experts

Exclusive events, professional development, and training opportunities

Features in Do Good Institute newsletters, website, social media, and more

Event Space (available by request)

Resources and Equipment

- Open work, classroom or event space (seats 30 for classes, 50 standing)
- Conference room (seats 8)
- Two lounge areas, with couches
- 24 foldable, rolling tables, which seat two per table
- 50 stackable chairs
- 4 rolling whiteboards, and 1 wall mounted dry erase board
- 2 wall mounted TV screens (connection via HDMI)
- Ceiling mounted projector (connection via HDMI)
- 36 lockers, equipped with locks

How to Apply

To apply, visit go.umd.edu/dgmembership. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis, and membership term begins once selected for participation.

For more information about membership or the Do Good Accelerator, contact Kisha Logan, Do Good Accelerator Manager. Or stop by to see us at 7878 Diamondback Drive, Suite B, College Park, MD 20742

Questions
about applying?

Email Kisha Logan,
Do Good Accelerator
Manager at
kvlogan@umd.edu

ACCELERATOR MEMBERSHIP

The Space You Need to Grow Your Impact

The Do Good Accelerator is a collaborative space on campus managed by the Do Good Institute to support students who are scaling up innovative projects that address today's most pressing challenges. The Accelerator acts as a hub for classes, workshops, programs, and panel discussions, and provides students a community-focused space where they can dedicate time to making an impact.

All current UMD students and alums working on a social-impact idea, project, venture, and/or organization are eligible to apply for membership. Membership is offered based on program participation, project feasibility, and space availability. If offered membership, is active for one academic year.

Location

7878 Diamondback Drive,
Suite B, College Park
(Located behind
The Hotel at UMD)

Hours

Monday through Friday
9am-5pm (after hours considered on case
to case basis)

Who

Open to all current UMD students and alums working on social impact projects

ACCELERATOR FELLOWS

Learn, Grow and Accelerate Your Social Impact Initiative

Do you have an idea that could change someone's life? Are you working on a project or social venture that could benefit from mentorship, programming, and financial support?

Spend a semester (or two!) exploring, testing, and scaling up your social impact idea, project, or venture at the Do Good Accelerator.

The Do Good Institute offers paid 9-week Fellowship programs during the Fall and Spring semesters to support students in transforming their ideas into impact.

Why Participate?

Coaching

One-on-one coaching sessions with experts

Workshops

Engaging workshops that build key skills

Community

Group activities with like-minded peers

Resources

Workspace, funding and dedicated time to advance your idea

ACCELERATOR FELLOWS

Learn, grow, and accelerate your social impact initiative and get paid to do it

Accelerator Fellow Alumni

Equalizing Opportunity

Shivani Shah
Peer to Peer

Shivani is creating important partnerships to provide after school programming and tutoring for local refugee students.

Empowering Communities

Faith Wilkins
BitView

Faith is supporting Baltimore high school students interested in computer science with coding classes, mentorship, and life skills.

Transforming Healthcare

Veeraj Shah
Chat Health

Veeraj is creating an app that helps students improve their health by providing answers to important health questions.

How to Apply

Applications for the Spring and Fall Fellows program are open!

Apply online at go.umd.edu/fellowsapp. To learn more about the Fellows program as well as other programs offered at the Do Good Accelerator, visit go.umd.edu/accelerator.

Note: If you are interested in a more intensive experience where you can dedicate more time to your project, visit our website to learn more about our Summer Accelerator Fellows.

Questions about applying?

Email Kisha Logan,
Do Good Accelerator
Manager at
kvlogan@umd.edu

SCALE YOUR IMPACT

Personalized Support and Funding to Grow Your Reach and Impact

Are you a UMD student or alum working with a project, student organization, nonprofit or social impact business focused on doing good? If so, Scale Your Impact is for you!

The Do Good Institute is seeking organizations that have already begun implementation, have had success to date, and are ready to scale.

The individuals and organizations demonstrating the most significant social impact and innovation could be awarded up to $30,000 to support the advancement of their project or venture as well as a suite of other valuable resources.

Available Resources

- Collaborative Work, Meeting and Event Space
- Coaching and Mentoring
- Financial Assistance
- Legal Support and Advice
- Issue/Sector Expertise
- Corporate, Nonprofit, and Government Connections
- Fundraising Support
- Board Development
- Communications and Marketing Support
- Course Offerings

SCALE YOUR IMPACT

Take your organization to the next level with personalized support and up to $30,000 in funding

Scale Your Impact Members

The Giving Square

Roots Africa

Vikara Village

Amy Neugebauer

Recognizing children as leaders for a new model of philanthropy.

Cedric Nwafor

Innovating agriculture and connecting students from Maryland to Liberia.

Hannah Davis

Influencing character, coping, and connections through yoga.

The Do Good Institute has a long history of supporting individuals and the advancement of innovative and impactful projects and ventures, including organizations that: helped rescue imprisoned journalists from abroad (Press Uncuffed); raised more than $100,000 and built multiple schools for students in Honduras (Students Helping Honduras); and recycled and supplied medications to more than 40,000 people from low-income backgrounds in South America (James Hollister Wellness Foundation).

How to Apply

Create a one page proposal that describes:

- Your project, venture or organization
- Your results to-date
- Your future plans
- Which resources you are most interested in receiving

Proposals are accepted on a rolling basis and should be emailed to Kisha Logan at kvlogan@umd.edu.

Questions
about applying?

Email Kisha Logan,
Do Good Accelerator
Manager at
kvlogan@umd.edu

We can't wait to meet you!

If you have any questions about how to get involved, want to learn more, or just want to chat, email us at dogood@umd.edu or connect with us online @DoGoodatUMD.